Q12 Suppose that you have commented on a post that was created by your best friend and that this post is only shared by your best friends' friends. You trust that your friend will not make your comment visible to others than the selected group of people. However, after few days your best friend changes the privacy setting of this post to public. As a result of Facebook Privacy Policy (stating that privacy of interactions on a post only depends on the privacy setting of that particular post, controlled tuned only by the post owner), your comment became visible to public, without getting your approval. What is your opinion about this policy?

Q13 Suppose that you see a public post in Facebook, and comment on it, by being aware that your comment will be visible to everyone. After a while, suppose that the post owner changed the visibility of that post to friends only, and you're not among his/her list of friends on Facebook. As a result of the Facebook Privacy Policy as described previously, you cannot see the post. You cannot even have access to your own comment or see it in your own action logs. What is your opinion about this policy?
